HANK SHIZZOE

Biography

Hank Shizzoe (*1966) lives in Bern. At the age of 16 he got a guitar and to this day has never let go of it. Later he began to write and sing songs and continued to do so on 16 of his albums and at more than 1500 concerts between Trondheim, Tanager, Budapest and Los Angeles. Hank Shizzoe shared stages with Bob Dylan, Ali Farka Touré, ZZ Top, David Lindley and Bo Diddley, played in Stephan Eicher's band, recorded a live album with Sonny Landreth, performed on stage at Carnegie Hall in New York City, won the Prix de la Scène at the prestigious Paléo Festival Nyon, made guest appearances on lots of records by other people, produced albums between rock, folk and pop music, wrote film and theatre scores and is a regular on radio shows. He likes mountains, woods, motorcycles, California and appreciates good food.

Productions for Moes Anthill (Album "Quitter", 2019), Claudia Bettinaglio, The Moondog Show, Christine Lauterburg, Markus Maria Enggist and many more. Live and in the studio with Stephan Eicher, Tinu Heiniger, Shirley Grimes, Martina Linn, Guesch Patti, Dechen Shak-Dagsay, Nanina Ghelfi, The Alpinistos, Max Lässer, Yvonne Moore, Toni Vescoli and more.

"Those who care about these things have been knowing for a long time that Hank Shizzoe is the best roots-rock songwriter and guitar player who's not hailing from the US. And that he would still be one of the best even if he did come from the Promised Land."
