B I O G R A P H Y

Guitar player, singer, songwriter and producer Hank Shizzoe (*1966) lives in the heart of Europe in Berne. Since 1991 he has released 17 albums. Together with his band he has performed more than 1500 concerts between Trondheim, Tangiers, Budapest, Chicago and Los Angeles. Hank Shizzoe has shared the stage with Bob Dylan, Ali Farka Touré, ZZ Top and Bo Diddley, played in Stephan Eicher's band, recorded a live album with Sonny Landreth, played Carnegie Hall in New York City, won the Prix de la Scène at the Paléo Festival in Nyon and produced countless albums for other artists from rock and folk to pop music. He records and performs regularly with Tinu Heiniger, toured with Max Laesser, Shirley Grimes, Christine Lauterburg and writes music for motion pictures and theatre. He likes mountains, forests, motorcycles, California and appreciates good food.

«Those who care about these things have been knowing for a long time that Hank Shizzoe is the best roots-rock songwriter and guitar player who's not hailing from the US. And that he would still be one of the best even if he did come from the Promised Land.»
